

Fostering children's learning process and cognitive abilities through holistic a approach and innovative methods.

Main Objectives

- reduce early school dropout
- speed up the learning process
- overcome shortage of specialists at schools
- improve engagement of parents in their children's learning processes
- offer free ICT tools for diagnosis of cognitive processes and the preferred learning style
- offer free training programmes and material for parents and educators to support pupils' development of effective learning skills

Who is it for?

- primary and lower-secondary school students (6-14 years old)
- primary and lower-secondary school teachers and school experts (e.g. psychologists, educators)
- teachers involved in the aspects of educational counselling
- parents

Expected Results

- electronic tool for diagnosis of cognitive processes of younger children (6 - 10 years old)
- electronic tool for diagnosis of learning styles and cognitive processes for older children (11 - 14 years old)
- training Toolkit for teachers and educators
- educational Toolkit for Students

Partners

Polska Fundacja Ośrodków Wspomagania Rozwoju i Gospodarczego „OIC Poland” w Lublinie

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ programme of the European Union

"The European Commission support for the production of this publication does not constitute an endorsement of the contents which reflects the views only of the authors, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein."

<http://prolearn-project.eu/> sekretariat@oic.lublin.pl