

EFFICACY IN ACTION!

Our project isn't just about big ideas, it's about turning those ideas into real-world successes. And that's exactly what we're doing!

Milestone after milestone, our actions speak louder than words. The wheels are turning and we're seeing tangible results that exceed expectations.

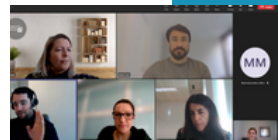

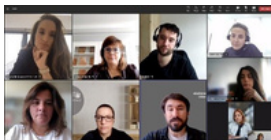

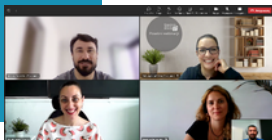

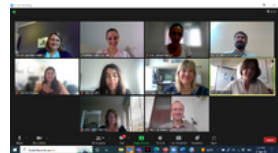

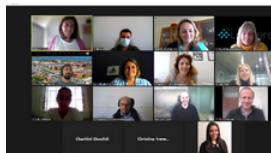

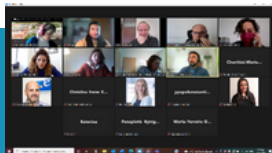

From the beginning, our vision has been clear - to create something extraordinary, something that leaves a lasting impact. We're proud to say that we're not just getting closer, we're getting closer at an amazing rate! Get ready to lead the way into the future of leadership with the groundbreaking E(U) Leaders Project!

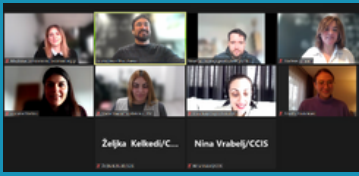

We're on a mission to shape a whole new era of leaders, armed with cutting-edge digital tools and supercharged e-leadership skills!

HOW DID WE REACH OUR MILESTONES?

Since the beginning of the project (12.2021) our team meets online every two weeks...

We met face to face in Leipzig, Germany for our Transnational Project Meeting (TPM) in December 2022.

... we met in Cyprus for our Short-term joint staff training event "Train the Leaders" and our TPM, in 05.2023...

The E(U) Leaders Project enables leaders to take responsibility, address gaps, seize opportunities and navigate the challenges of the the ever-evolving realm of virtual teams like a pro!

Guidebook of inclusion of best practices on suitable digital working environments.

The Guidebook includes examples of good practices already established at a European level, promoting e-strategies and e-tools organisations adopted in their daily management for ensuring the efficient virtual working environment of their employees.

e-leadership Model adopted within TBO and NTBO.

The E(U) Leaders partnership has developed an e-leadership Model which is targeting entrepreneurs, employers, leaders, managers who are managing their teams virtually. The aim of the Model is to identify the training needs, challenges and gaps e-leaders face when managing virtual working environments and teams.

Stay tuned for the e-learning platform for leaders!

The e-learning platform is a core component of the project since it supports existing and would-be entrepreneurs / employers / leaders / manager and VET trainers / mentors and educators' ever-growing educational and development needs.

After successfully completing the e-learning platform, users will get a free of charge certification.

The certification of e-leadership skills acquired is based on ISO/IEC 17024:2012.
